ORDER

Michael J. Quilling, as Receiver for James Rumpf and CIG, Ltd., has filed a motion to compel Left Behind Games, Inc. ("LFBG") and its transfer agent, Columbia Stock Transfer Company, to transfer 35,862 shares of LFBG stock. According to the Receiver, Rumpf used money traceable to defrauded investors to purchase the stock, which is currently registered to one of his entities, IAM, Ltd. Once the transfer is made, the Receiver seeks authority to sell the stock free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances at the then market value.

The Receiver was ordered to post a copy of the motion on his website with notice to all interested parties that any objections must be filed with the court by December 5, 2007. No written objections have been received. The Securities and Exchange Commission, through its regional counsel, has consented to the transfer and sale of the LFBG stock.

Accordingly, it is ordered that:

1. The Receiver's motion to transfer common stock and sell free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances [Doc. #366] is granted.

2. Left Behind Games, Inc. ("LFBG") and its transfer agent, Columbia Stock Transfer Company, are hereby ordered to transfer 35,862 shares of LFBG stock to Michael J. Quilling, in his capacity as Receiver for James Rumpf and CIG, Ltd. Once the transfer is made, the Receiver is authorized to sell the stock free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances at the then market value.

SO ORDERED.

DATED: December 7, 2007.
