ORDER REAPPOINTING RECEIVER

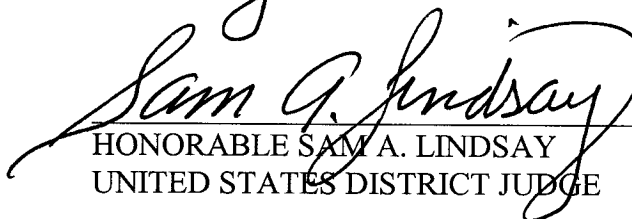

On July 19, 2005 the Court signed an Amended Order Appointing Temporary Receiver that named Michael J. Quilling as Receiver for the above-named Defendants and Relief Defendant. Within ten days of his appointment, the Receiver filed notices under 28 U.S.C. § 754 in U.S. District Courts where he believed assets of the Receivership Estate were located. Since that time, however, further investigation has identified potential assets of the Receivership Estate in other federal districts.

In order to comply with the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 754 and to confer jurisdiction upon this Court of all receivership assets, regardless of their location, the Receiver has filed a Motion for Order Reappointing Receiver. The Court, having carefully considered the Motion and relevant case law, concludes that the Motion should be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Michael J. Quilling is hereby REAPPOINTED as Receiver in these proceedings as to the above-named Defendants and Relief Defendant. This reappointment incorporates all of the provisions set forth in the Orders of Appointment signed by this Court on July 19, 2005 and January 20, 2006.

Signed this 1st day of February, 2006.

HONORABLE SAM A. LINDSAY
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
