ORDER ON RECEIVER'S PROPOSED BUDGET
(Lancorp Financial Receivership Estate)

Michael J. Quilling, as Receiver for Lancorp Financial Group, LLC and related entities, has submitted a proposed budget in the amount of $243,930.00 for fees and expenses likely to be incurred in marshaling assets, identifying liabilities, processing claims, and distributing proceeds to defrauded investors. Of this sum, $26,300.00 represents legal fees and expenses to be paid to his law firm, Quilling Selandar Cummiskey & Lownds, P.C., to prosecute a civil action pending in federal district court.

To date, the Receiver has collected approximately $1.3 million by liquidating various bank accounts. In addition, the Receiver anticipates recovering another $930,000.00, plus whatever final distribution is made by the Megafund Receivership Estate to the Lancorp Financial Receivership Estate. This estimate is based, in part, on the successful outcome of several lawsuits brought against third-parties. Because of the uncertainties surrounding this litigation, including the collectability of any judgments awarded, the court will monitor the legal fees and expenses incurred by the Receiver in light of monies recovered on behalf of investors.

The following procedures are hereby established for payment of the Receiver:

1. The Receiver shall submit quarterly applications specifying the amount of fees and expenses incurred on behalf of the Lancorp Financial Receivership Estate for the preceding 90 days. Fee applications shall be filed with the district clerk on or before the 10th day of April, July, October, and January. Each application must be supported by detailed records documenting the time spent, services performed, and expenses incurred in connection with the underlying receivership action and each lawsuit prosecuted by or on behalf of the Receiver. The hourly rate for each attorney or legal assistant who performed the service shall be listed for each entry. Any out-of-pocket expense item of more than $500.00 must be supported by a receipt.

2. The Receiver shall post his fee application on his website, www.secreceiver.com, when it is filed with the court. Appropriate links to the court's docket shall be provided to users of the website. Any interested party who objects to approval of the fee application must file written objections with the court within 20 days after the application is filed. Objections should be addressed to:

The Honorable Jeff Kaplan
United States Magistrate Judge
1100 Commerce Street, 16th Floor
Dallas, Texas 75242

If any party desires a hearing on the fee application, a written request for hearing must accompany the objections. Unless a hearing is requested, the court intends to rule on the fee application based on the written submissions of the parties after the expiration of the deadline for filing objections.

3. The Receiver shall file an interim status report along with each fee application. The status report shall contain the following information: (a) a brief description of the actions taken by or on behalf of the Receiver during the period covered by his fee application; (b) the amount of money or the value of assets recovered by the Receiver during the period covered by his fee application; (c) the total recovery obtained on behalf of defrauded investors to date; and (d) a brief description of the actions to be taken by or on behalf of the Receiver during the period covered by the next fee application. A copy of the interim status report shall be posted by the Receiver on his website.

SO ORDERED.

DATED: March 27, 2006.

JEFF KAPLAN
