ORDER

Defendants have filed a second motion to suspend all deadlines and for leave to file late responses to plaintiff's motion for summary judgment and plaintiff's motion for entry of a final default judgment against Palace Investments, Inc. until ten days after July 13, 2006, the deadline established by the court for the parties to attempt to settle this case. [Doc. #69]. After discussing the motion with the attorneys in a telephone conference held on June 23, 2006, the court determines that the defendants' motion should be granted in part and denied in part. Without deciding whether defendants should be allowed to file late responses to the pending motions, the court will defer ruling on plaintiff's motion for summary judgment and plaintiff's motion for entry of a final default judgment against Palace Investments, Inc. until July 13, 2006 at the earliest. If this case does not settle by that date, defendants may renew their motion for leave to file late responses to plaintiff's motions.

SO ORDERED.

DATED: June 23, 2006.

UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
