2. This objection is based on the same grounds as the previous set of motions to abandon the various policies heard by this Court.

3. If the motion to abandon is granted, the order should provide that the abandonment only be done after proper notice to the investors involved, and several months from now.

4. Defendant, Kimberly A. Snowden submits this opposition in an attempt to preserve and protect the best interest of the clients (investors) of American Financial Services, Inc.

5. Defendant Kimberly A. Snowden has no objection to the moving party's request for an extended hearing on this matter.
